Chapter 1 by Jacqueline

Khushnum Mistry

Every time I look at a blank paper my experiences and emotions come haunting and daunt my mind ; a whirlpool of emotions fill my heart and my fingers can't cope with the commotion...

Every time I look at a blank paper I feel I ought to write something for mankind... Every time I look at a blank paper all I want to write is how to love and the million scars it inscribes on your heart ; the madness, craziness it possess you with...

Every time I look at a blank paper I want to scribble meaningful and meaningless words; make some chaos; fill it up; draw something; write something more...

Every time I look at a blank paper, all I do is look at it and someday hope...
